

On a Broomstick

(Sing to the tune of 'Frère Jacques'/'Are You Sleeping?')

On a broomstick, on a broomstick,
Witch and cat, witch and cat.
There's a strong wind blowing,
There's a strong wind blowing,
Lost her hat, lost her hat.

Where's the black hat? Where's the black hat?
"Look", they cry, "look", they cry,
Little dog, he found it,
Little dog, he found it,
On they fly, on they fly!

On a broomstick, on a broomstick,
Flying high, flying high.
Then she lost her hair bow,
Then she lost her hair bow,
Down they dive, down they dive.

Where's the hair bow? Where's the hair bow?
"Look", they cry, "look", they cry,
Little bird, he found it,
Little bird, he found it,
Off they fly, off they fly!

On a broomstick, on a broomstick,
Over the pond, over the pond.
Then it started raining,
Then it started raining,
Dropped the wand, dropped the wand.

Where's the star wand? Where's the star wand?
"Look", they cry, "look", they cry.
Luckily frog found it,
Luckily frog found it,
Off they fly, off they fly!

On a broomstick, on a broomstick,
Fly around, fly around.
But they're all too heavy,
But they're all too heavy.
What's that sound? What's that sound?

Saw a dragon, saw a dragon,
Breathing flames, breathing flames.
And he was quite scary,
And he was quite scary.
Up he came, up he came.

All the animals, all the animals,
In the mud, in the mud,
Scared away the dragon,
Scared away the dragon.
Saved her, good! Saved her, good!

Got her cauldron, got her cauldron,
Made a spell, made a spell,
For a brand new broomstick,
For a brand new broomstick,
That flies well, that flies well.

Brand new broomstick, brand new broomstick,
Long and strong, long and strong.
Everyone has space now,
Everyone has space now,
Whoosh they're gone, whoosh they're gone!
