

Now can you spot what people are doing right? How many

You should always check left or right and stop at a red light never run on roads or drive when your tired.

on and don't forget follow the Green Cross code