

The Little Girl Who Flew

Once upon a time there was a little girl called Isabella, who was 4 years old and was a ballerina. One day, when she was practising her newest move called 'the flying swan', she felt her feet lifting off the ground and she flew. As she flew higher, she froze in shock. Isabella decided that she would only use the flying swan in emergencies but that she would use this power to help people.

Little did she know that she had more powers!

She told her best friend and then she said she had powers too. She said that she would help her to conceal her powers and she was going to help to control them too.

One day Isabella and her best friend Ana were playing in the park when a snake 🐍 slithered towards Isabella's sister. As quick as lightning, Isabella ran to her sister and she flew her sister away. 🍓 suddenly she called animal control and saved the day.
