CHAPTER ONE

By Le'Shayne

"Come back you dumb idiot!" grunted a rude brother, as he raged through the forest, in hot pursuit of his brother's hijacker.

Determined to catch Jack's hijacker, the brother had a smart plan to catch the beast. However, he didn't know if it was going to work in tricking him to surrender his prisoner -Mike's 9-year-old brother. But the monster was like an invincible shape-shifter who can never be defeated and a beast that never lost a fight. It was a real challenge but Mike wanted to take that risk for his brother. It was between life or death.

Two hours later, the beast recruited some people to hunt for the older brother. He pronounced, "Whoever finds the boy will win ten thousand dollars!" So, they agreed to be the beast's little dogs and listen to whatever he says but no one can find a trace of the boy. They were petrified, thinking that the boy might attack. Then they heard a noise so the beast exclaimed, "Everybody get ready to attack!". However, to his embarrassment it was a pigeon. The boy was in the woods practising in the 'Zombie Apocalypse' woods in the dark, waiting for the demons to attack.

With a gun and a knife, zombies came to attack. Mike was shortly captured and dragged away. Out of nowhere, shots were fired at the demons and there was some hope for Mike. Who was here to save him? Luke of course!
