CHAPTER 1 – VACATION CALLS

A family decides to go on vacation only to find out a nasty twist

“Are you excited for this vacation?” exclaimed Daddy Pig, as they gathered their things for the journey. The family strolled to the car and as soon as they were about to leave, little Peppa shrieked, “WAIT I LEFT TEDDY AT HOME!”. So they quickly grabbed him and left..

“Are we nearly there yet?” George cried, as he glanced out the car window.”We have twenty-five minutes left” Mummy Pig declared.... Twenty-four minutes later, they saw they reached Heathrow airport and they quickly unbuckled their seat belts. The family excitedly hopped out(they were scared that they would miss their flight). As they were boarding the aircraft, they could hear muttering\chattering from outside.

CHAPTER 2 - ALL ABOUT MR HALF-EATEN POTATO

Mr Half-Eaten suffered as a child from depression and loneliness; he had to live in an adoption centre ever since his parents passed away. His mother died in a brutal burglary; his father tried to save her but got killed. Potato was mourned bitterly for the next 80 days.

Sadly, potato then became the target of the school bully, they would throw food at him and laugh at him. From that day onwards, he wanted to seek revenge and was determined others knew how it felt to feel the pain. So.. he became a better and stronger master in kendo and deception to get the attention of his victims. He dressed up as a delivery man and RIPS your spine out and turns each bone into a necklace that he proudly wears around his neck.

CHAPTER 3 - EVIL HAS COME
