

As readers, we will:

- Continue to use our phonics knowledge to decode and blend words fluently.
- Listen to and discuss a variety of picture books that we enjoy
- Practise retelling and answering questions about stories.

As writers, we will:

- Use the book Rapunzel to inspire us to write our own retell of the book and to write instructions.
- Use capital letters, punctuation and leave spaces between words.
- Write sentences by joining words together and using clauses.

As mathematicians, we will:

- Practice counting beyond 20 and all the way to 100.
- Compare sets of objects, numbers and amounts
- Explore and decompose numbers 0-5 in different ways
- Develop fluency in our numberbonds.

As artists & designers, we will:

- Use the work of Tjala-Wawiriya-Burton to inspire our own self-portrait paintings.
